On Sunday 10 September, the Catholic Church in Australia will mark Safeguarding Sunday (formerly Child Protection Sunday), which falls on the second Sunday of September each year.

Safeguarding Sunday seeks to acknowledge the damage caused by sexual abuse of children and adults at risk, including by priests, religious and lay people within Catholic contexts.

It makes a commitment to practices & protocols that create & maintain safe environments for all people, and invites people to pray for those harmed by abuse directly and indirectly.

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

Reconcile with one another

What's the best way to repair a damaged relationship?
 Jesus offers his disciples spiritual freedom and power for restoring broken or injured relationships.

Don't brood over an offense - speak directly and privately

What can we learn from Jesus' instructions about how to mend a damaged relationship? According to Jesus (Matthew 18:15-20) If you feel you have been wronged by someone, the first step is to speak directly but privately to the individual who has done the harm.

One of the worst things we can do is brood over our grievance. This can poison our mind and heart and make it more difficult to go directly to the person who caused the damage.

Seek the help of another.

If we truly want to settle a difference with someone, we need to do it one to one.

If this fails in its purpose, then the second step is to bring another person or persons, someone who is wise and gracious rather than someone who is hot-tempered or judgmental. The goal is not so much to put the offender on trial, but to persuade the offender to see the wrong and to be reconciled. And if this fails, then we must still not give up, but seek the help of the community.

Note the emphasis here is on restoring a broken relationship by seeking the help of others who hopefully will pray and seek a solution for reconciliation based on Christian love and wisdom, rather than relying on coercive force or threat of legal action, such as a lawsuit.

Pray for the offender - for healing and reconciliation

We know from the Gospel accounts that Jesus often had fellowship with tax-collectors (as well as other public sinners), ate with them, and even praised them at times! Jesus refuses no one who is open to receive pardon, healing, and restoration.

Keep Safe!

Safeguarding is everyone's Responsibility!

Please fulfill your Safeguarding Requirements!

Help our Parish to be Compliant!
