SACRED SPACE

Today's reading repeats the message of last Sunday that Jesus is the beloved Son. 'This is my Son, the Beloved.' These were the words that propelled Jesus into his ministry, and now, as Jesus begins his journey to Jerusalem, these words return to confirm his relationship with God.

I think we are dealing here with a very real, historical but inner experience in the life of Jesus – one he probably experienced a number of times. His early ministry had its focus in Galilee where many received him and his message. But Jerusalem is the religious centre of Judaism. The Temple is in Jerusalem. The entire sacrificial system of Judaism is focused on Jerusalem where the high Priestly families and the extended family of Herod live. In Matthew 16 Jesus begins to teach that he must go to Jerusalem (16:21) and this will bring him into conflict with the Jewish leadership groups. Even knowing this, Jesus makes the choice to journey south to Jerusalem.

No doubt before this decision was made he would have spent time in prayer, wondering if this was the path to take, wondering if direct confrontation with the Jewish leaders was really necessary. These times of prayer, even anguish and seeking direction, would have been a struggle to really discern what God was wanting of him. Making decisions where we seriously consider what God may want of us is never easy; the Temptation scene of last week depicted such a struggle in Jesus' life. Today's reading depicts the sense of God's confirming presence.

Moments of God's consoling presence, which we read about today, may be rare, and when they come there is the temptation voiced by Peter to want to stay there – to build tents on the mountain. But Jesus is called to leave the mountain of God's presence and go down to Jerusalem.

Knowing he is heading to Jerusalem, God does not promise to protect Jesus, or spare him the struggle his mission will demand. The words heard during the Transfiguration are words of relationship – 'this is my beloved son'. Knowing oneself to be loved and held by God is enough. This is the only certainty that carries Jesus onward. Sometimes this is all any of us can cling to for support through difficult times.

During the week you might consider your own 'transfiguring' or 'transforming' moments – those times in your life when you have faced new directions. You might recall the struggle and consoling sense of God's presence at those times.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Genesis 12:1-4

A Reading from the book of Genesis.

The Lord said to Abram, 'Leave your country, your family and your father's house, for the land I will show you. I will make you a great nation; I will bless you and make your name so famous that it will be used as a blessing. 'I will bless those who bless you: I will curse those who slight you.

All the tribes of the earth shall bless themselves by you.' So Abram went as the Lord told him.

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 32:4-5, 18-20, 22

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

1. The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. R.
2. The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. R.
3. Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. R.

SECOND READING

2 Tim 1:8-10

A reading from the second letter of St. Paul to Timothy.

With me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God who has saved us and called us to be holy – not because of anything we ourselves have done but for his own purpose and by his own grace. This grace had already been granted to us, in Christ Jesus, before the beginning of time, but it has only been revealed by the Appearing of our saviour Christ Jesus. He abolished death, and he has proclaimed life and immortality through the Good News.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mt 17:5

Glory and praise to you, O Christ!
From the shining cloud the Father's voice is heard:

This is my beloved Son, hear him.
Glory and praise to you, O Christ!

GOSPEL

Matthew 17:1-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone. There in their presence he was transfigured: his face shone like the sun and his clothes became as white as the light. Suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared to them; they were talking with him. Then Peter spoke to Jesus. 'Lord,' he said 'it is wonderful for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.' He was still speaking when suddenly a bright cloud covered them with shadow, and from the cloud there came a voice which said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; he enjoys my favour. Listen to him.' When they heard this the disciples fell on their faces overcome with fear. But Jesus came up and touched them. 'Stand up,' he said 'do not be afraid.' And when they raised their eyes they saw no one but only Jesus. As they came down from the mountain Jesus gave them this order, 'Tell no one about the vision until the Son of Man has risen from the dead.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

CREED

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

(All bow during these two lines)

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,

born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;

he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;

he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God

the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.

Amen.

PARISH PRAYER

God our Father, bless this parish so that we may love you more. Bless us in ways that you know best and form us into a true community of worship and love. Deepen our understanding of your message today. Give us especially your spirit of love, so that it may touch all people with whom we come into contact. Encircle our families with your loving care and assist parents in their role as leaders in faith. To the sick grant health, to the aged bring serenity and peace, and to those in sadness joy. May we grow stronger in faith and our love for one another become deeper in our daily living.

Amen.

THE ALPHA COURSE

What is the point in life?
What happens when we die?
Is forgiveness possible?
What relevance does Jesus have for our lives today?

Your personal invite to Alpha

Date: 20th April 2023

Time: 7.00pm in the church hall

Venue: St Francis of Assisi Parish, Mill Park

Contact : Ruth 9407 6700

WHAT IS ALPHA?

The Alpha course is an opportunity to explore the Christian faith. It's relaxed, low key, friendly and fun. There is a meal together at the beginning of each session which gives an opportunity to get to know each other. Listen, learn, discuss and discover, and ask anything. Alpha is a place where no question is too simple or too hostile.
