THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

FIRST READING Eccl. 35:12-14, 16-19

A Reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus.

The Lord is a judge who is no respecter of personages. He shows no respect of personages to the detriment of a poor man, he listens to the plea of the injured party. He does not ignore the orphan's supplication, nor the widow's as she pours out her story. The man who with his whole heart serves God will be accepted, his petitions will carry to the clouds. The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds, until it arrives he is inconsolable, nor will he desist until the Most High takes notice of him, acquits the virtuous and delivers judgment. And the Lord will not be slow, nor will he be dilatory on their behalf.

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 33:2-3,17-19,23

R. The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad.
R.
2. The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth. The just call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress. R.
3. The Lord is close to the broken-hearted; those whose spirit is crushed he will save. The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants. Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. R.

SECOND READING

2 Timothy 4:6-8,16-18

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy.

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing. The first time I had to present my defence, there was not a single witness to support me. Every one of them deserted me – may they not be held accountable for it. But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

2 Cor 5:19

Alleluia, alleluia!

God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself; and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 18:9-14

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Jesus spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being virtuous and despised everyone else: 'Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself, "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get." The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

CREED

I believe in God,
the Father almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son,
our Lord,
(All bow during these two lines)
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

SACRIFICIAL ENVELOPES for the next four months of November 2019 to February 2020 are available for collection at the rear of the church. If you need sacrificial envelopes, please fill in your details at the bottom of the Pauline and place in the collection plate during mass. Many thanks to all our contributors. May I encourage existing contributors to add more to their sacrificial offering. I encourage others to join in this scheme as well. The weekly average of $800 is not enough to maintain with the steep expenses of the parish. $1215 weekly are needed for the Parish Office, church cleaning, garden maintenance, flowers, & organists. Not included in this figure are the water & electricity bills, organ service & general maintenance. Similarly, the $600 weekly average of the presbytery is not enough when the presbytery needs $500 weekly. $600 are distributed among the 4 categories of priests: The Archbishop, the Priest's Retirement fund, support of sick and retired priests, and the remaining amount goes to support the priest who works with you in the parish. Please think, consider, pray & act. Thank You, Fr. Ray.

WE PRAY FOR

BAPTISMS: Natalia Moughanie, Allegría Fazzolari & Quinn Conheady

We pray for those in our local community who are sick and vulnerable: may they see in us the followers of a God who heals and serves.

Let us pray for those who have died recently; and those whose anniversaries we remember at this time; Domenico Trabucco (1 year anniversary), Vincent Avenoso; that they may enter the peace of God.

STEWARDSHIP:

“...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” (Luke 18:14)

Pride and ego is the root cause of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable, your talent is better than anyone else and your money gives you status is another way of making those things “gods” before God. Remember all those gifts were God-given. Instead we should be humbled by God’s abundant generosity and our hearts should overflow with gratitude.

REFLECTION: “Befriended by Jesus”

...everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted. Luke 18:14

A friend was in a minor traffic accident recently that he caused. “No one was hurt, thank God, but I feel so humbled. I wasn’t paying attention!” he said to a group of us. He, who had been proud of his good driving, humbled himself by telling the story, not blaming the other driver, not making excuses. A fascinating thing happened. A wave of understanding moved through the gathering—each of us nodding with memories of our own, something we’d done, nodding with memories of our own, something we’d done, a mistake we’d made or a moment when our opinion of ourselves had been too high. The feeling was not one of negative judgment; it was as if we thought more of him, not less. A better description than “exalted” might be more deeply befriended.

Jesus, when we humble ourselves, admitting our mistakes and failures, help us realize you don’t scorn us, but exalt us with your warm befriending. Patricia Livingston

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

That we may kneel before God every day, humbly recognizing that everything we have is a gift and asking God to guide us in the ways we use and share His many gifts.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: “Enthusiasm”

The difference between one man and another is not mere ability ... it is energy. Thomas Arnold

I am all in for saving the earth, saving the whales, saving the dolphins, saving the bees, BUT CAN WE SAVE THE BABIES FIRST?
