SACRED SPACE

It is important to emphasise that the Gospel is in no way saying we should not have opinions or that we should not express them. What it is saying is:

- To avoid having such a high awareness of the shortcomings of others that we have lost the ability to see and accept our own.
- We can spend hours talking about what is wrong with other people – superiors, peers, family members – in their absence but are not prepared to bring our grievances for open dialogue with the people concerned.
- People who gossip incessantly suddenly become reluctant and tongue-tied when asked to evaluate honestly (i.e. both positively and negatively) a colleague who is being considered for another post. Such an evaluation, including its negative parts, may be extremely helpful both to the candidate and the whole organisation. It can avoid the appointment of a person to a position who is quite unsuitable – and it may happen that I am the only person aware of the weakness.
- We live under the illusion that if my boss changes, my spouse changes, my work or home environment changes, then I will be happy. Why should other people change just for me?

The real solution is for me to change. To respond proactively rather than just have a kneejerk reaction every time something touches a sensitive nerve in me. Let me be in charge of my own life and stop trying to change others. As Fr Tony de Mello used to say, "When I change, my whole world changes". And, not only that, when I change, other people are likely to change but, even if they do not, my attitude towards them will not be the same. We have to make our own bed; we don't wait for others to do so. To quote Fr de Mello again, "Attitude is everything." My attitude, that is.

I can learn to be totally accepting of reality, of the way people are. I can refuse to be intimidated or irritated or resentful. I can take off my actor's mask and be fully myself. In the process I can let other people too be themselves. I am no longer worried about planks in my own eyes or in others'. What you see is what there is.

I judge myself by the standards of Jesus: a good tree bears good fruit. "A person's words flow out of what fills their heart." And the words – fruits of a good tree – are full of warmth and affirmation and encouragement and compassion with now and again some positive, constructive confrontation and challenging.

Each Fri 7.00pm

Remember - LENTEN PROGRAM 2022 - St Oliver's and St Pauls

You are invited to participate in the Lenten Program to be held each Thursday evening from 7pm to 8pm in the Parish Centre, St Oliver Plunkett Parish, commencing Thur 3 March. Includes daily reflections for Lent and Easter with reflections from Fr Antony Jukes and spiritual direction from Mother Hilda Scott. We hope that these sessions will help us focus on getting to know the compassion and mercy of God through Jesus – both personally and as a community – helping us to reconnect with ourselves as members of the body of Christ. To help defray the cost of books provided, a donation of $8 would be appreciated. Please contact Parish Office 7036-8330 or 9354-1564 or leave your name on list provided at back of church if you wish to attend.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING

Ecclesiasticus 27:4-7

A Reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus.

In a shaken sieve the rubbish is left behind, so too the defects of a man appear in his talk. The kiln tests the work of the potter, the test of a man is in his conversation. The orchard where a tree grows is judged on the quality of its fruit, similarly a man's words betray what he feels. Do not praise a man before he has spoken, since this is the test of men.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 91:2-3,13-16

R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

1. It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night.
R.
2. The just will flourish like the palm tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar.
R.

3. Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing sap when they are old, still full sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong.
R.

SECOND READING

1 Cor 15:54-58

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

When this perishable nature has put on imperishability, and when this mortal nature has put on immortality, then the words of scripture will come true: Death is swallowed up in victory. Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting? Now the sting of death is sin, and sin gets its power from the Law. So let us thank God for giving us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Never give in then, my dear brothers, never admit defeat; keep on working at the Lord's work always, knowing that, in the Lord, you cannot be labouring in vain. The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Philippians 2:15-16

Alleluia, alleluia!
Shine on the world like bright stars;
you are offering it the word of life.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 6:39-45

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Jesus told a parable to his disciples: 'Can one blind man guide another? Surely both will fall into a pit? The disciple is not superior to his teacher; the fully trained disciple will always be like his teacher. Why do you observe the splinter in your brother's eye and never notice the plank in your own? How can you say to your brother, "Brother, let me take out the splinter that is in your eye," when you cannot see the plank in your own? Hypocrite! Take the plank out of your own eye first, and then you will see clearly enough to take out the splinter that is in your brother's eye. 'There is no sound tree that produces rotten fruit, nor again a rotten tree that produces sound fruit. For every tree can be told by its own fruit: people do not pick figs from thorns, nor gather grapes from brambles. A good man draws what is good from the store of goodness in his heart; a bad man draws what is bad from the store of badness. For a man's words flow out of what fills his heart.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, (All bow during these two lines) who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

PARISH PRAYER

God our Father, bless this parish so that we may love you more. Bless us in ways that you know best and form us into a true community of worship and love. Deepen our understanding of your message today. Give us especially your spirit of love, so that it may touch all people with whom we come into contact. Encircle our families with your loving care and assist parents in their role as leaders in faith. To the sick grant health, to the aged bring serenity and peace, and to those in sadness joy. May we grow stronger in faith and our love for one another become deeper in our daily living. Amen.

Jesus told his disciples that each tree is known by the fruit it bears. Fill the fruit with examples of some good things we can do that show to others that we are good people.

HEALING MINISTRY - CATHOLIC CHARISMATIC RENEWAL (CCR)

The CCR Healing Ministry works out of the St Oliver Plunkett Parish Centre on Tuesdays and is based on Isaiah 61:1-3. The aim of the Healing Ministry is to allow the Holy Spirit to work through the charisms of the ministers to bring healing, release and freedom to those in need. We pray for anyone in need for such things as the affects of trauma, depression, occult involvement, grief, addictions, physical healing and are led by the Holy Spirit to pray for whatever healing and restoration a person needs. It is a service of love, confidential and free. "Freely we have received and freely we give." Matthew 10:8a

This ministry is deeper than a general prayer for healing which happens in Charismatic Prayer Groups and usually requires an hour of ministry. To make an appointment at the Pascoe Vale Prayer Centre please call CCR on 9486 6544.

LATEST COVID GUIDELINES - Face coverings and QR code check-in no longer required for Places of Worship.

Safety of Children & all Vulnerable People We hold the care, safety and wellbeing of children and all vulnerable people, as a central and fundamental responsibility, of our parishes. The Parish Statement of Commitment and the Reporting Process, are on display in all churches, and all Parish Policies are available, on the website: cam.org.au/Coburg
