THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

FIRST READING

Acts 2:1-11

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When Pentecost day came round, they had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech. Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 103:1,24,29-31,34

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

1. Bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great you are,
How many are your works, O Lord!
The earth is full of your riches. R.
2. You take back your spirit, they die, returning to the dust from which they came. You send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth. R.
3. May the glory of the Lord last for ever!
May the Lord rejoice in his works!
May my thoughts be pleasing to him.
I find my joy in the Lord. R.

SECOND READING

Romans 8:8-17

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans.

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God. Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him. Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you. So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live. Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 14:15-16,23-26

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'If you love me you will keep my commandments. I shall ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever. 'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words. And my word is not my own: it is the word of the one who sent me. I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you.

The Gospel of the Lord.

CREED

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son,
our Lord,
(All bow during these two lines)
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

During this weekend's masses we will give some space for this to fill in the Parish Census cards. One card for each household. Volunteers will be around with pencils to distribute and collect the cards & to help anyone who needs. I appreciate your cooperation. Fr. Ray

WE PRAY FOR

BAPTISMS: Rafele Marolda, Ezra Tagle, Darcie Brennan & Cruz Gobbo

We pray for the sick; and housebound members of our community: may they be cared for with sensitivity & warmth.

Let us pray for those who have died recently; and those whose anniversaries we remember at this time: Gilberto, Rosella Pulvano, Paolo Di Salvatore, Concetta, Teresa Formosa, Joseph Duca; that they may enter the peace of God.

STEWARDSHIP:

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (John 14:26)

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions.

REFLECTION: "Violence doesn't make sense"

And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit... Acts 2:4

On Pentecost Sunday some time ago, I was privileged to be at a Mass in St. Peter's Square in Rome. What struck me there was the universality of the Church. There were people throughout the basilica speaking some languages that I recognized and many others that I did not. There were black, brown, yellow and white faces, and every shade in between. We Americans are sometimes rather myopic, thinking we are the center of the Church. It was a grace to realize that I am a small part of a larger reality. The Holy Spirit has descended on each of us, uniting us around the Lord's table.

It is at such graced moments that I wonder why people around the world are in such violent conflict and even killing each other. Don't we realize that we are one—truly brothers and sisters? We are wounding our own body. It doesn't make sense.

Msgr. Stephen J. Rossetti

The only certainty is that nothing is certain.

THE FIRST MASS WAS CELEBRATED IN MELBOURNE.

"One hundred and eighty years ago on Sunday, 19th May, the first Mass was celebrated in Melbourne. It was a humble affair. Mass took place in a primitive shack on the corner of Little Collins and Elizabeth streets, with just a handful of believers gathered with their newly arrived Pastor, Fr Geoghegan. This first gathering of the fledgling local Church in Melbourne occurred without any resources beyond themselves, a priest, the Word of God and some bread and wine. Yet, it was a bold statement of faith and hope." Archbishop Peter A Comensoli.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

Q: Why was six scared of seven?

A: Because seven "ate" nine.

Q: Why shouldn't you write with a broken pencil?

A: Because it's pointless!

At the doctor's office, Tom was getting a check up. "I have good news and bad news," says the doctor. "The good news is you have 24 hours left to live." Tom replies, "That's the good news?!" Then the doctor says, "The bad news is I should have told you that yesterday."
