LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING A reading from the prophet Daniel (12: 1-3)

“At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people. There is going to be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared, all those whose names are found written in the Book. Of those who lie sleeping in the dust of the earth many will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace. The learned will shine as brightly as the vault of heaven, and those who have instructed many in virtue, as bright as stars for all eternity.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 15 Keep me safe, O God; you are my hope.

SECOND READING A reading from the letter to the Hebrews (10: 11-14, 18)

All the priests stand at their duties every day, offering over and over again the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking sins away. Christ, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his place for ever, at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him. By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying. When all sins have been forgiven, there can be no more sin offerings.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia Stay awake and stand ready, because you do not know the hour when the Son of Man is coming. Alleluia!

GOSPEL A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark (13: 24-32)

Jesus said to his disciples: “In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven. “Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you, when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. “But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.”

November mass envelopes are available in the foyers if you would like to make a contribution for our November masses.

Congratulations: In this past week we held eight masses for students at both St Anthony's and St Francis Xavier's to receive their First Holy Communion. This was for both this and last year's candidates who were not able to do so because of the various lockdowns. It was a marathon and given these covid times, sadly, each student was only able to have two guests each but a smaller more personal occasion was also appreciated. Let's pray for them all.

Fr Daryl's retreat intentions: In addition to praying for our whole Parish, if anyone would like their particular/special intentions prayed for, please write them down and hand them to Fr Daryl at any of the masses next weekend. You can also drop them off at the Parish House this week. He will bring them all with him on retreat.

Next Sunday's Readings

Christ The King Feast

First Reading: Dan: 7: 13-14| Second Reading: Apo 1: 5-8| Jn 18:33-37

The Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Parish Prayer

We, the people of Corio & Lara Catholic Parish give thanks and praise to God the Father. By the power of the Holy Spirit, may we become more like Jesus: listening to the Word of God and celebrating the Eucharist; sharing each other's lives and forgiving one another; respecting creation and taking responsibility for our world.

Like St Francis Xavier, may we offer light to those in darkness, and warmly welcome all people.

Like St Anthony of Padua, may we nourish the hungry with wise words and kind deeds.

St Francis Xavier, pray for us.

St Anthony of Padua, pray for us.

Amen
