First Reading

A reading from the book of Wisdom

In your sight, Lord, the whole world is like a grain of dust that tips the scales, like a drop of morning dew falling on the ground. Yet you are merciful to all, because you can do all things and overlook men's sins so that they can repent. Yes, you love all that exists, you hold nothing of what you have made in abhorrence, for had you hated anything, you would not have formed it.

And how, had you not willed it, could a thing persist, how be conserved if not called forth by you? You spare all things because all things are yours, Lord, lover of life, you whose imperishable spirit is in all. Little by little, therefore, you correct those who offend, you admonish and remind them of how they have sinned, so that they may abstain from evil and trust in you, Lord.

The Word of God, Response - Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 144:1-2. 8-11. 13-14. R. see v.1

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God

1. I will give you glory, O God my King, I will bless your name for ever. I will bless you day after day and praise your name for ever. (R.)
2. The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love. How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. (R.)
3. All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing. They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God. (R.)
4. The Lord is faithful in all his words and loving in all his deeds. The Lord supports all who fall and raises all who are bowed down. (R.)

Second Reading

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

We pray continually that our God will make you worthy of his call, and by his power fulfil all your desires for goodness and complete all that you have been doing through faith; because in this way the name of our Lord Jesus Christ will be glorified in you and you in him, by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

To turn now, brothers, to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and how we shall all be gathered round him: please do not get excited too soon or alarmed by any prediction or rumour or any letter claiming to come from us, implying that the Day of the Lord has already arrived.

The Word of God, Response - Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

*God loved the world so much, he gave us his only Son,
that all who believe in him might have eternal life.
Alleluia!*

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus entered Jericho and was going through the town when a man whose name was Zacchaeus made his appearance; he was one of the senior tax collectors and a wealthy man. He was anxious to see what kind of man Jesus was, but he was too short and could not see him for the crowd; so he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus who was to pass that way. When Jesus reached the spot he looked up and spoke to him: 'Zacchaeus, come down. Hurry, because I must stay at your house today.' And he hurried down and welcomed him joyfully. They all complained when they saw what was happening. 'He has gone to stay at a sinner's house' they said. But Zacchaeus stood his ground and said to the Lord, 'Look, sir, I am going to give half my property to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody I will pay him back four times the amount.' And Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because this man too is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek out and save what was lost.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Response - Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

BIBLE STUDY - The Bible timeline

This is an excellent program, especially for those wanting to make a start on bible study.

This study ties all the books in the Bible together. It provides a big picture so that the Mass, Scripture readings and study come to life. We also see how our lives fit into God's loving plan.

Thursdays 7.30pm online/zoom

Watch video presentation and share responses to engaging questions.

SATURDAY EVENING ROSARY DEVOTION FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER

By tradition, the Catholic Church dedicates each month of the year to certain devotion. The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary, one of the best known of all Catholic devotions. The best way to celebrate the month is, of course, to pray the Rosary.

Join us EVERY SATURDAY in OCTOBER after the 6pm Mass as we pray together as a Parish community.

Week 5 (29 Oct 2022) - Joyful Mysteries

SAFEGUARDING ESSENTIALS ONLINE TRAINING MODULE IS NOW LIVE.

The Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne Professional Standards Unit has announced the launch of the Safeguarding Essential online training module for volunteers.

The Safeguarding Essentials online training is a 30 min training module for volunteers within the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne. Clergy and employees will be able to access the training module currently on Employment Hero.

The purpose of this training is to provide our volunteers with:

- foundational knowledge that will support them to undertake their role
- a clear understanding of their duty of care and expectations with regards to safeguarding children, young people and adults from all forms of abuse and harm

This will be:

- an annual requirement for everyone
- possible to complete individually online

At the completion of the training:

- participants will receive a certificate of completion
- the parish will also receive notification that the module has been completed successfully.

ST JUSTIN'S PARISH VOLUNTEERS

Our parish is planning to host group sessions in the near future for all our committed volunteers.

Dates and times will be announced shortly.

Alternatively it may be more convenient for you to undertake online training at home, if so please go to: www.safeguarding.melbournecatholic.org

To login, you will need:

- your unique Working With Children Check ID
- your email address

Each registered user will receive:

- a certificate of completion emailed to you.
- an annual reminder to complete the course.

All Saints Day - 1st November

All Saints' Day is a solemn holy day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. It should not be confused with All Souls' Day, which is observed on November 2, and is dedicated to those who have died and not yet reached heaven.

All Saints' Day was formally started by Pope Boniface IV, who consecrated the Pantheon at Rome to the Virgin Mary and all the Martyrs on May 13 in 609 AD. Boniface IV also established All Souls' Day, which follows All Saints.

On behalf of the St. Justin's "Fair on the Hill" Committee, I would like to extend a warm invitation to you, to be part of our St Justin's Fair on the Hill community event. This year, our Fair will be held on Saturday 5th November from 11:00am-3:30pm.

The focus of our Fair will be about reconnecting with our local community as we are very excited to be able to engage with the community again (post covid cancellations). There will be a variety of student and parent managed stalls, live entertainment, rides, delicious food and much more.

While preparations are well on the way for this year's Fair on the Hill, we are still in need of help in a few different areas.

- Blocks of chocolate (for chocolate toss)
- Bottle of wine (wheelbarrow of cheer)
- Volunteers on stalls

If you in a position to be able to donate a bottle of wine of bottle and/or a block chocolate we would be most appreciative if you could drop these off to the parish/school office.

If you have an hour or two of time to spare on the weekend, we would love your help on a stall. Working with Children's Check is required. If you would like to volunteer collect a paper version of the Volunteer form from the Parish or you can complete the form via this link - <https://forms.gle/e5qFCCaTFAJsqaqz8> or via the QR code.

Thank you for your support,
The St Justin's Fair Committee
