THE CELEBRATION OF MASS IN OUR PARISHES

The Chief Health Officer has strongly recommended the use of face coverings in indoor and crowd settings during this winter period. Face coverings remain optional within Places of Worship. However, parishioners should be encouraged to be sensitive to the well-being of others when in close proximity.

Clergy and Extraordinary Ministers are asked to wear face coverings for the distribution of communion.

"PLENARY OUTCOMES - NIMMI CANDAPPA"

On 29th September, our Partnered Parishes Plenary Council Facilitators Group hosted a presentation from Plenary Council Member, Dr Nimmi Candappa.

Nimmi spoke about the Plenary Motions and Outcomes and her hopes for the future of the Church. Her reflections included her feeling Grateful, while experiencing a few Bruises, had a sense that the Council was Spirited, and was left with a strong feeling of Hope. Her sense of Hope results from the fact that dialogues have been opened and are continuing. For change to be made and be effective, it must be occurring within our parishes.

While she felt the Holy Spirit worked to make the Plenary productive, a session to discuss key issues important to many laity, as well as more time to discuss opposing views with members, especially the Bishops, would have been helpful.

Nimmi provided us with a wonderful experience, and it was heart-warming to see our three parishes enjoying such an uplifting experience together. We owe a great deal of gratitude to Nimmi for sharing her insights and outlook for our Church.

A copy of Nimmi's reflection expanding on the bruising challenges and future hopes is available on request from any of your Plenary Council Facilitators Group.

LAMP-Love and acceptance for Mental Peace.

In response to the Bishop's Social Justice theme "Mental Health," a theme re-echoed in our parish during the plenary discussions in 2018, coupled with our experience of Covid and lock downs a group was formed to develop approaches and responses to the needs of our parish community. This group is called LAMP – Love and Acceptance for Mental Peace. LAMP has been active since then, e.g., parish survey and education sessions.

As a result of Covid lockdowns there has been a sharp increase in mental health areas, particularly anxiety and depression. Many family members and friends have often found themselves in a carer role with little or no support.

In response LAMP would like to provide the opportunity for a mutual support group to meet over a 'cuppa' for the opportunity to share your experience, joys, and frustrations, of being a carer for a family member or friend.

ALL ARE WELCOME.

Lectionary Art and Reflection by Jenny Close

Only one of the ten lepers whom Jesus cured was able to overcome his self-absorption for long enough to give thanks. Ironically that leper was a foreigner.

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

9 October 2022

First Reading 2 Kgs 5:14-17

Naaman returned to Elisha, the prophet, and acknowledged the Lord.

Naaman the leper went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as Elisha had told him to do. And his flesh became clean once more like the flesh of a little child.

Returning to Elisha with his whole escort, he went in and stood before him. 'Now I know' he said, 'that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Now, please, accept a present from your servant.' But Elisha replied, 'As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing.' Naaman pressed him to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, 'Since your answer is "No," allow your servant to be given as much earth as two mules may carry, because your servant will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any god except the Lord.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 97:1-4. R. see v.2

(R.) The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

1. Sing a new song to the Lord for he has worked wonders. His right hand and his holy arm have brought salvation. (R.)
2. The Lord has made known his salvation; has shown his justice to the nations. He has remembered his truth and love for the house of Israel. (R.)
3. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Shout to the Lord all the earth, ring out your joy. (R.)

Second Reading 2 Tm 2:8-13

If we hold firm, we shall reign with Christ.

Remember the Good News that I carry. 'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David'; it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal – but they cannot chain up God's news. So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen, so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it.

Here is a saying that you can rely on:
 If we have died with him, then we shall live with him.
 If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him.
 If we disown him, then he will disown us.
 We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful,
 for he cannot disown his own self.

Gospel Acclamation 1 Thes 5:18

Alleluia, alleluia!

For all things give thanks to God, because this is what he expects of you in Christ Jesus.

Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 17:11-19

It seems that no one has returned to give thanks to God except this foreigner.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, 'Jesus! Master! Take pity on us.' When he saw them he said, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.' And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.'

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSA

The leprosy of Naaman and the ten men in the gospel serves as a metaphor for sinfulness, the condition that makes us unfit for the presence of God and despicable in the eyes of others. Separated from God and alienated from society, we are truly in a deplorable state, a state out of which we are unable to extricate ourselves. Into these seemingly hopeless conditions step the prophet Elisha and Jesus. Each in his own way brings the healing power of God, the saving grace of God. Paul is such a mediator as well. He brings the gospel to those who are in need of salvation. When people are open to his preaching, they are transformed and made ready to receive eternal glory.

After healing come gratitude and praise. Both Naaman and the lone Samaritan are so filled with gratitude that they return to the one responsible for their healing. They are not so preoccupied with their good fortune as to forget that it came to them as a gift. Their response is the kind of thanks and praise that is proclaimed in the psalm and that is also celebrated at each Sunday Eucharist. We have been saved from our alienation from God and from each other so let us give thanks to the Lord.

Those who know that they have been healed, who realize that this was a gift freely given to them, and who return to give thanks have, by these acts of devotion, stepped over a threshold into a new way of living. Their thanks and praise usher them into a new age, the age of eschatological promise.
