Gospel: Luke 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.

'Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"? Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself today and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty."

Reflection:

Colourful stories and wild exaggerations were part of Jesus' standard teaching repertoire. Today Luke seems to have moderated one such figure of speech. In both Matthew and Mark Jesus says that with faith his followers could throw a mountain into the sea. Luke reduces this to a mulberry tree. However, this is still a mighty feat, an imaginary instance of what could be done by those who believed that "nothing is impossible to God" (1:37).

For all the prominence Luke gives to mercy and compassion in his gospel, there are times when he takes a hard line. As we've been reminded in recent weeks, he is acutely aware of the lure of possessions and constantly warns about the dangers of wealth. Well-to-do Christian leaders may be the target of the unique story he now tells. Servants who have done their job would be foolish to expect their master to turn around and serve them. They would have forgotten their place. Community leaders too must never forget that their role is to serve, not to be served.

The two parts of this gospel text stand in complete contrast to one another. Part one opens up a panorama of the infinitely possible, part two shuts the door on illusions of self-importance. In the proclamation, a suitable pause would allow the assembly to distinguish them as two disparate units.

Celebrating 90 years of Catholic Education in Montmorency

The Marion Month of October

At Our Lady Help of Christians, Eltham, we will be praying the Rosary for October on Wednesday evenings from 7:30pm, starting this coming Wednesday 5th. All welcome.

At St Francis Xavier, Montmorency, each Tuesday in the church, a group of us gather to say the Rosary after the 9:30am Mass, starting at approximately 10:10am. If you have 20 minutes to spare once a week, and feel like joining us, you are most welcome. In reciting the Rosary we keep in mind to honour, and be filled with gratitude for the gifts Our Lady spreads throughout the world. Through the month of October, we will be praying for peace in the world.

Accept, O Mother of Christ, this cry laden with the sufferings of all individual human beings, laden with the sufferings of whole societies. Let there be revealed, once more, in the history of the world your infinite power of merciful Love.

May it put a stop to evil. May it transform consciences. May your Immaculate Heart reveal for all the Light of Hope.

COMMENT

If you haven't read the centre pages of the Bulletin 25/9/2022 I urge you to do so. Amazing grace is an excerpt taken from The Tablet. Christopher Jamison, abbot president of the English Benedictine Congregation, is concerned with what we understand about grace. His latest book: Finding the Language of Grace, I have bought, and it will go onto the shelves in time.

I have chosen a few books about Grace, already in the library, to place on the top shelf. Jamison tells us that Christian prayer is an act of love. He also says that Grace is at work in everybody's life.

Another comment he made, caught my attention, as he believes that Gerard Manley Hopkins is the poet who has embraced the language of grace more thoroughly than any other poet. My grandfather was godfather to Hopkins in 1866 when they both converted to Catholicism in their years at Oxford.

The books on the shelf are:

Grace Notes... : to use one of Father Michael's words, a beautiful little gem... by Brian Doyle.

Grace-filled Days by Alice Camille,

Grace, an excellent read from Michael Collins of Tarrawarra, Yarra Glen.

Enjoy reading, Trish Taylor

Prayers of the Faithful for 2 October 2022 Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Leader: Let us turn to the Lord for help, for our God is the rock who saves us.

As we approach the Feast of St Francis of Assisi on Tuesday, we pray for the welfare of Pope Francis in mind, spirit and body, as he leads the Church and spreads the gospel message.

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for the leaders and the people of Australia, that we can explore ways that can unite and support each other, rather than those that divide us.

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

On today's International Day of Non-Violence, we pray for a peaceful resolution for those affected by the war in Ukraine; the women oppressed in Iran; and girls and women in Afghanistan deprived of educational opportunities.

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for all students and school staff who are returning for Term 4, but especially the VCE students who are approaching exams. We pray that they approach their studies in a positive and confident manner and that they achieve the results that reflect their efforts.

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for all emergency and essential service workers who help to maintain and protect our community, often at great cost to themselves. We acknowledge that we appreciate their generosity and dedication.

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for all of those who are listed on the sick list in the Parish Bulletin and for all others who are suffering in mind, body or spirit. We pray they will experience the healing touch of Christ.

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for those who have died recently, including Margaret Anna Callahan & Derek Rollins. We also remember Peter Brewer, Judy McInerney & Gracie Money whose anniversaries occur at this time. May they rest in the peace and love of Christ.

Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Faithful God, you hear the prayers of those whose faith is but the size of a mustard seed. Help us to recognise that we are called to be your servants and strengthen our desire to serve you unconditionally. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

Prayer Wheel:

In the month of October we have so many people and issues to pray for: climate change and world peace are the top two.

Those two are highlighted by events around the world including:

- the devastating hurricanes that have hit Cuba and America with up to 241 km/hr winds;
- heavy rains in Pakistan and also in Australia, especially the east coast of Australia, again devastating parts of Queensland and New South Wales;
- the upscaling of the war in Ukraine is seeing a rise in petrol prices and impacting on the cost of food as well as the stress on economies around the world are obvious;

- there's our own local issues with cyber security and telecommunication issues affecting our personal information;
- there's the continuing rise of mental health issues because of the effects of long-covid;
- and all the normal stuff of life which each family have to endure.

So during this month of October we have special prayers and commit them to our Mother Mary, in this Marion Month.
